Re: United States v. Caracappa and Eppolito
Criminal Docket No. 05-0192 (JBW)

Dear Counsel:

Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, the government discloses the following additional information.

As of February 1, 2006, the government has given Peter Franzone and his family approximately $21,000, for relocation, living and medical expenses. The government has also paid for his lodging since March of 2005. This Office will disclose the dollar amount spent on his lodging as soon as it becomes available.

Thomas Galpine has been involved in the following categories of criminal activity, including conspiracies and attempts to commit these crimes: narcotics trafficking, kidnaping, weapons possession, insurance fraud, interstate shipment and possession of stolen property, tax evasion, promoting prostitution and manufacture and sale of counterfeit
